DISCLAIMERS/WARRANTY

USP Structural Connectors (USP) warrants to the Buyer that this product is free from defects and conforms to the manufacturer's specifications in force on the date of manufacture and when used in accordance with the Manufacturer's Published Installation Instructions (MPIIs) and when stored as directed in the technical literature. Manufacturer cannot warrant or guarantee any particular method of use, performance or application under any particular condition and Buyer is responsible for determining the suitability of intended purpose and assumes all risks therein. If the product is proven to be defective or not in conformance with manufacturer's specifications, then Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy shall be a refund of the purchase price or replacement of product, as determined in USP's discretion. In no event shall USP be liable for any injury, loss or damage, including any consequential, incidental or special loss or damage, arising directly, indirectly or incidentally out of the use or misuse of any product sold by USP or another distributor.

The warranty described in this paragraph is in lieu of all other warranties, expressed or implied, including warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, all such other warranties being hereby excluded. Manufacturer may, from time to time, modify this warranty in its discretion.

This warranty is to be read together with USP's Terms and Conditions of Sale and Manufacturer's Published Installation Instructions.
